2018-2019 VERIFICATION OF HIGH SCHOOL COMPLETION STATUS

If the student is unable to obtain the documentation listed below, or the student has already submitted this documentation for the purpose of admission, he or she must contact the financial aid office.

- A copy of the student's high school diploma.
- A copy of the student's final official high school transcript that shows the date when the diploma was awarded.
- A copy of the student's General Educational Development (GED) certificate or GED transcript.
- An academic transcript that indicates the student successfully completed at least a two-year program that is acceptable for full credit toward a bachelor's degree.
- If the student was home schooled and your state law requires you to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool, (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a copy of that credential.
- If the student was home schooled and your state law does not require a homeschooled student to obtain a secondary school completion credential (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a transcript or the equivalent, signed by the student's parent or guardian, that lists the secondary school courses the student completed and documents the successful completion of a secondary school education in a homeschool setting.
