Distance Learning Program
for high school and adult students in the rural areas of Wayne, Pike, and Susquehanna counties.

A direct route for students to complete any of Johnson College's 2-year associate's degree programs and ultimately a fulfilling career with family-sustaining wages while staying in their communities.

Students will have access to Johnson College's on-campus support services including:

- Tutoring
- Counseling
- career services
- financial aid
- internship opportunities
- exposure to industry from day one

Reach your full potential and connect with the region’s in-demand careers!
Enroll in this interactive access to Johnson College faculty and participate in remote education, discussions, testing, and skill demonstrations via high-tech telecommunications equipment.

COURSES ARE AVAILABLE AT:

- Forest City Regional High School
- Honesdale High School
- Wallenpaupack Area High School
- Western Wayne High School
- Lakeville Library (laptop access)
- Newfoundland Library (laptop access)
- Pleasant Mount Library (laptop access)

To learn more about this program, please visit: Johnson.edu/usda-registration or email the Johnson College enrollment team at:

enroll@johnson.edu

This program is funded in part by a grant from the United States Department of Agriculture’s Distance Learning and Telemedicine Grant Program.