

FALL 2025 CHECKLIST

- Complete as soon as possible:
 - Review the Accepted Students webpage (link below)
 - Register and attend an Orientation Session
 - There will be four sessions offered (to be announced) and students are expected to attend the entire day-long session. Please plan accordingly.
 - Complete FAFSA and other financial aid documents
 - Contact financialaid@johnson.edu with questions
 - Complete any outstanding enrollment paperwork
 - Complete the New Student Intake Form (sent from your Academic Advisor)
 - Submit transcripts to the Registrar's Office for transfer credit evaluation
 - Contact registrar@johnson.edu with questions
- Complete after attending Orientation:
 - Purchase tools (if required)
 - Attend Program Orientation (if required)
- Complete before the first day of class:
 - Contact Enrollment, if you still have any general questions
 - Check your account balance and set up a payment plan, if necessary
 - Review your schedule the weekend before classes for the most up-to-date info
 - Check in with your advisor with any schedule concerns
- Textbooks
 - All students are automatically enrolled in the Equitable Access Textbook program. Digital textbooks can be found in Desire to Learn (D2L) and will be available at the beginning of the semester. If you have physical textbooks, you will receive an email with pick-up instructions.
- THE FIRST DAY OF CLASS IS Monday, August 25, 2025

*This checklist and links to important info, documents, and other resources can also be found at:
www.johnson.edu/acceptedstudents/